Queen and Court Will Reign In Tonight's Ceremony

President Prout Makes Awards To Outstanding Students

Students Given Recognition In Morning Assembly

Capped and gowned seniors marched into the Auditorium this morning to open the annual Honors Day Assembly in which recognition was given to students and organizations for the year's achievements.

President Frank J. Prout opened the assembly.

New Cap and Gown members are Marchia Hachtel, Gloria Speers, Jean Mains, Janice Smith, Patricia Cloos, Virginia Cryer, Bonney Sawyer, Onnalee McGillvary, and Magdalene Batcha. As their names were read they came to the platform. Cap and Gown is a senior woman's honorary for outstanding scholarship and extra-curricular activity. These junior women were awakened early this morning and entertained at breakfast by senior Cap and Gown members.

Fellowships, Scholarships

The following fellowships and appointments were announced by Dr. Prout: Sue Gesling—service scholarship to Northwestern University; Clayton McDole—a graduate assistantship in physics at the University of Illinois; Winifred Cole—a graduate assistantship in chemistry at Ohio State University.

Virginia Keller, payment of living expenses for services rendered in dietetics at the University of Washington, Seattle; Laura Morris, payment of living expenses for services rendered in dietetics, University of Indiana Medical Center, Indianapolis.

Mary Jane Lloyd and Martha Transue, scholarships in drama at Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

Faculty Women's Award

Mrs. Frances Andres received the Faculty Women's award of twenty-five dollars as the senior women most outstanding in scholarship and contributions to campus life. She also received the award of the annual interest from a scholarship fund established by the class of 1926 granted to the student with the highest average in the College of Education who has done all her studying at Bowling Green.

Chemical Journal

Robert Comer won the Chemical

Coriell Winner

Alice White

Journal Club award for placing highest in the examination taken by freshman chemistry students.

Scholarship Cups

The Russell Scholarship cup, awarded to the sorority with the highest point average for the preceding semester was won by Alpha Phi. The Urschell cup, awarded to the group of independent women with the highest average, went to Williams Hall. Mrs. C. C. Kohl, on behalf of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, presented the Kohl cup to Sigma Nu as the fraternity with the highest average.

Honor Graduates

Seniors graduating with honors are Clayton McDole, summa cum laude. This is the second time in the history of the University that a senior has received this honor. Frances Andres, Winifred Cole, Jean Harshman, Sally House, Bernice Nece, and John Wilson, magna cum laude; and Bill Gaines, Mary Ann Koeppe, Clara Jean Miller, Grace Ssiener, and Elaine Wise, cum laude.

Forensic awards went to Eva Marie Saint, Larry Kuhl, John Keown, Mary Ann Koeppe, Aurelia Christea, Ashel Bryan, and Clarence Homan.

White And Miller Win Coriell And Siebens Trophies

Alice White, senior from Shelby, received the E. E. Coriell cup today in Honor's Day assembly awarded to the outstanding senior. Offered for the first time last year, the Coriell cup goes to the senior man or woman outstanding in every phase of college life. This cup is named for E. E. Coriell, University trustee who died in March.

Clara Jean Miller, Bowling Green senior, won the Siebens Trophy awarded annually to the outstanding coed in the department of physical education.

Alice is editor of the 1946 Key, president of Cap and Gown, president of Pi Kappa Delta, and a member of Theta Alpha Phi, and the Spanish Club. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta, and a speech major.

Clara Jean was president of WAA this year, and is a member of Cap and Gown, Sigma Pi Rho, the physical Education Club, the

Siebens Winner

Clara Jean Miller

Table Tennis Club, the Archery Club, and the Modern Dance Club. She was president of Gamma Phi Beta this year.

PiKaps Win May Sing Cup In Wednesday Night's Songfest

Pi Kappa Alpha was awarded the Gamma Phi Beta May Sing cup in Honor's Day assembly this morning for the best performance in the third annual May Sing Wednesday evening.

In 1945 the cup was won by Alpha Chi Omega, and in 1944 by Alpha Phi.

Banquet To Climax Initial Greek Week

Greek Week, a series of activities held through the co-operation of men's fraternities, is being sponsored here this week by the Interfraternity Council of the University and by the Wood County Interfraternity Club. Although it is the first time that Greek Week has been held at Bowling Green, plans have been made to continue it as an annual affair.

Out-of-town guests include: Dean Joseph A. Bursley—University of Michigan, Education Adviser of the National Interfraternity Conference; Dr. Frederick Schuech—Battle Creek, Mich., Post Grand Council of Sigma Chi; E. Russell Easton—Chicago, Ill., Executive Secretary of Sigma Alpha Epsilon; J. J. Joseph—Cleveland, Province Chief of Alpha Tau Omega; Robert Williams—Columbus, Province Chief of Sigma Chi; Fred A. Hunt, Toledo, Province Chief of Phi Delta Theta; Dean Joseph Park—Columbus, Dean of Students, Ohio State University; G. A. Ginter, Cincinnati, National Vice-president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Climaxing the week's activities, a banquet will be held at Kohl Hall this Saturday. Rev. James Stoner will give the invocation, President Frank J. Prout will extend greetings to the guests, and a short talk will be given by Chuck Risher, President of the Campus Interfraternity Council.

Sadie Hawkins Election May 17

Elections for Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner will be Friday, May 17 in the Well. Ballots may be cast between 10 and 12 a.m. and 1 and 3 p.m. Results of the election will be announced in an assembly sponsored by Alpha Tau Omega tentatively scheduled for Wednesday, May 22. If the assembly is not held, the announcement will be made before the Sadie Hawkins dance May 25.

Candidates for Daisy Mae are Gloria Billet, Mary Jo Bowman, Pat Coughlin, Janet Davis, LaVerne Fitzgerald, Barb Heirman, Lorene Mathias, Donna Miller, Jan Shaw, and Ruth Wehde.

Li'l Abner contestants are Jim Dunn, Jim Knierim, Steve Randolph, and Ned Robinette.

Identity Of May Queen And Court To Be Revealed In English Setting

May Queen 1946 will be crowned at ceremonies Thursday evening at 9 when the "May Night" program begins in the University Amphitheatre. No one will know the identity of the Queen or her court of class attendants until during the program.

Elections were conducted Friday by Student Council. Candidates, nominated by campus sororities, had their pictures in the Well of the Administration Building for two days before election. No campaigning was permitted.

Every candidate will participate in the coronation ceremonies as a "lady of the court."

Honorary Writes Script

May Day is being planned by a student committee headed by Penny Cloos, junior. The script for the affair was written by Sig-

Phi; Marilyn Stearns, Sigma Rho Tau; Ellen Tucker, Alpha Gamma Delta.

English Setting

The coronation ceremonies will take place in an English village in the 16th century. Five men will compete to have the right to name the Queen of the May (who will be the senior woman chosen in the all-campus election). When her majesty has been crowned the villagers will pay homage to her in song and dance.

Student Assistants

Ralph Klein, instructor in speech, is faculty adviser to the May Day committee. Eva Marie Saint is assisting Director Penny Cloos. Others on the committee are Dorothy Main, costumes; Olga Sonkoly, vocal director; Clara

The May Day Committee has requested that there be no cheering as the May Queen and attendants are announced. The announcement will be made as part of the program, and is written into the script.

Jean Miller, dance director; Bill Zimmerman, technical director; Kim Griggs, assistant technical director; Edie Jones, throne decorations; Doreen Stouffer, make-up; and Jean Harshman, programs.

Members of Workshop Players, freshman drama group, will be ushers.

Cancellation Of Review Announced By Swan Club

Cancellation of the Swan Club Demonstration, which was to be given May 23, has been announced by Edie Jones, president of the Swan Club. The remainder of this year will be spent in practicing for the review to be given the first part of next year.

Pre-War September Opening Is Resumed For 1946-47 Year

For the first time since September, 1942, fall classes at Bowling Green will open in September. This will mean just 12 weeks of vacation from June 21, the end of the spring term, 1946, until September 15, the beginning of the fall term, 1946. Classes will again be held on Saturday, and a total of 24 and one-half days of vacation have been scheduled.

The fall terms for the 1943-44, 44-45, and 45-46 school years did not begin until the last of November because the men in the Navy Unit stationed at Bowling Green had to complete a full quarter before fall term classes were started. Only nine hours, or one-half of a semester can be completed in the usual time allotted for the summer term.

The schedule for the fall term, 1946, is:

Fall Term, 1946

'Taming of the Shrew' Delights Audience As Players Score in Third Major Production

by Bill Gaines

Small but enthusiastic audiences were treated to most delightful and sprightly performances of the perennial favorite, William Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" last weekend at the University Auditorium, May 9, 10, 11, and 12. The lines were convincingly delivered, with gratifying attention being paid to the smallest details as well as the major requirements of this fine old Elizabethan comedy. The costuming and the simplicity of the setting were impressive.

Leads Played Deftly

Doreen Stouffer and Barry Menagh carried the lead roles with magnificent assurance and deftness. Miss Stouffer is to be commended for her excellent interpretation of the vitriolic tergite, and particularly her subtle transition from nagging spinsterhood to an apparently tractable and devoted spouse. Katherine's imperious shrieks and gestures were handled with an altogether admirable restraint. Menagh actually looked his part, which added to his convincing interpretation of Petruchio, the tamer. The scuffle scene in which Petruchio and Katherine match tempers and wits, with the former emerging triumphant, is to be remembered for the careful timing of the action and the lines.

Gremio, was constant; his affected Larry Kuhl and Phil Miles added well-earned feathers to their caps of achievement on the stage, also turned in satisfying performances. Shakespearean Blank Verse A valid rendition of Shakespearean blank verse is concededly difficult to attain, considering the necessary elements of archaic diction and perhaps the initial step in such a desired achievement is the realization by actors that the lines should be delivered as blank verse, and not in the hulking prose style of Dreiserian monody or the da/dee/da prosaism of bobbysox banter. Rhyming lines should not be accented, since they are intended to, and if properly delivered do, produce a quick and effervescent mood, the dominating characteristic of any successful dramatization of Shakespearean comedy. A few of the actors spoke too rapidly and, at times, with such slurred enunciation, that whole passages lost their meaning.

Praises For Direction

The countless hours of diligent rehearsal and the evident indications that a tremendous amount of attention had been paid to a genuine and plausible treatment of this Shakespearean gem warrants fulsome praise for the director, Elden T. Smith, and his capable technical staff. It is to be hoped that the immortal bard of Avon will appear more frequently in the versatile repertory of the University Players.

A valid rendition of Shakespearean blank verse is concededly difficult to attain, considering the necessary elements of archaic diction and perhaps the initial step in such a desired achievement is the realization by actors that the lines should be delivered as blank verse, and not in the hulking prose style of Dreiserian monody or the da/dee/da prosaism of bobbysox banter. What to Study

"But why?" they say. "Why do I have to take that?" A history major wonders why he is required to take chemistry—or algebra—or physics. A math major wonders why he is required to take English composition. They shake their heads in bewilderment and feel very mistreated.

It may seem strange to some of these students, but the truth is that the powers-that-be are not demons who concoct the required curriculum in boiling witches cauldrons. They have the students' interests at heart.

The problem of what really makes a good education is centuries old. Even then educators were attempting to put forth a curriculum which would be perfect, one that would draw out the best in each person.

Prof. O. P. Field, of the Indiana University government department, in his "The Problem of American Higher Education," published recently in "School and Society" is one of the latest to advance his ideas on higher education. According to Prof. Field, the superior students are being placed at a disadvantage by the curriculum which are now popular. In his article, he agrees with Charles Evans Hughes, who said, "I am one of those who believe in the classical and mathematical training and I do not think we have found any satisfactory substitute for it."

"On the other hand," Prof. Field writes, "to compel the average student to choose the curriculum which the able student should take is only to insure the former's failure in his studies. Other students know that they cannot successfully cope with mathematics and the more difficult and abstract subjects. For a college to offer to these students such subjects as mechanical drawing, typing, shorthand, newspaper reporting and other subjects along this line, with some history, government, sociology, music and art, is perfectly justifiable. It may be, ideally, that such students should not be present on the same campus with students of medicine, law, higher mathematics and philosophy."—ACP

No More Joe College

Because of the greater number of students carrying heavy schedules and the more serious attitude of the students toward their work, the old "Rah! Rah!" spirit is disappearing from the campus, Vice-President Stradley of Ohio State University, said when he was asked what he thought were the reasons for the lack of spirit among the students.

Graduate students, students in the professional colleges, and many others, have too much work to do, he said, to allow much time for social activities. He added that there seems to be a general attitude of more work and less play. THE OHIO STATE LANTERN, Columbus, Ohio.

College Cuffnotes

Hell Week has been dropped at Ohio State University. A subject of much controversy, the traditional week of hazing has been greatly modified. The initiation will consist of four parts: a series of meetings at which university and fraternity history and relations will be discussed, an examination covering the material covered, redecoration of the fraternity house by pledges, and formal initiations. One fraternity, really in the spirit of the event, will begin its initiation by burning its paddles in a formal ceremony.

"I'm sitting this one out, is the reply Cincinnati coeds give to swains who phone to ask, 'What are you doing tonight?' Under the supervision of several coed organizations, coeds 'mind the baby' for veteran students living on campus. This gives the parents a chance to shop or find recreation and still keep within their 'shoestring' budgets.

The typewriter on which Ernie Pyle wrote his last article has been given to the Indiana U. chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity. The portable, now rusted and battered, has been placed on exhibit with his last manuscript. Pyle was a student at Indiana in 1923.

The University of Maine campus received a thorough spring cleaning May 4. "Maine Day" was inaugurated to arouse interest in keeping the campus beautiful. A morning of work: trimming grass and shrubs, cleaning walks, raking leaves and cutting trees, was followed by an afternoon of sports and a free dance in the evening.

The Date Bureau run by the Student Senate at Purdue is going in high gear now that men are back to stay. All the student has to do is sign a card giving the facts—the Bureau does the rest.

Does anyone have an old skull lying around? A museum is being planned by the sociology department at Kent State. Materials given and loaned to the exhibition will be used in anthropology classes.

In Lilac Time

Freshman Marilyn Connors, Toledo, admires the lilac bush growing on the east lawn of the Library.

Chinese Lilac Near Library Marks Historic Hull Trail

Editor's Note: This story was first printed in a May issue of the News last year.

That lilac you've seen blooming in such symmetrical profusion just east of the Library has a history.

It is directly in the center of the trail used by General Hull on his ill-fated expedition from Dayton to Detroit at the beginning of the War of 1812.

It is a Chinese variety, presented to the University (then a state college) in the spring of 1931 by Mr. D. C. Brown of Napoleon, who served as a member of the board of trustees of the university from 1911 to 1937. According to President Frank J. Prout, Mr. Brown brought his own spade and planted it personally.

This was all Indian country in the days when the Hull trail was blazed by three expert woodsmen, one of whom was Isaac Zane, the brother of the famed Betty Zane. This and other details of the trail are described by Charles Sumner Van Tassel in his "The First One Hundred Years of Bowling Green (1833-1933)." Prof. John Schwarz said that the Hull trail followed approximately the same route that the New York Central Railroad now takes.

Inscription Prepared

Before his death Mr. Van Tassel prepared an inscription for a bronze plaque which will some day be put up near the lilac bush to mark the location of the trail more definitely.

The elm tree close by the lilac bush also has an historical background, since it is a seedling from the Logan elm.

R. M. Ronk, maintenance engineer, said that the lilac was grown at the Ritter Nurseries at Napoleon. "Mr. Brown gave it to the college just because he admired it," Mr. Ronk stated. "It was at the same time that we got the conifers around the Training School and Science Building.

Lumber Shortage Hinders Construction of 'Noah' Set

Post-war lumber shortages have affected the building of Noah's ark. The next University Theatre production, "Noah," originally scheduled for the Amphitheatre, has been moved inside because of the lack of material to construct an outside setting.

Meeting May 23 For Teaching Certificates

Students who will graduate from the College of Education June 21 and who wish to teach—secondary or elementary—should report to 201 Ad Building between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. Thursday, May 23, it was announced today by J. W. Bunn, registrar. This is necessary to fill out the formal application for a teaching certificate.

Students must bring pen and ink and the certification fee of $1. This may be in cash or a check or money order made out to H. J. Bowers, Supervisor of Certification.

If it is not possible for students to attend this meeting, they should contact Mrs. Dorothy Thomas in the Registrar's office before May 23.

Treble Clef's Nine Day Tour Via School Bus is Ended

Traveling in two school busses from the campus and Wood County, 68 women students and four adults made a successful Treble Clef spring concert trip from Bowling Green to New York City, singing nine concerts in as many days. Treble Clef, under the direction of Dr. James Paul Kennedy, made its appearance before the people in nine towns, stopping enroute and on the return trip to see various historic places of interest.

The tour began Friday morning,

The Treble Clef ledger has an additional one dollar entry in black ink. A woman who heard the concert in Painted Post, N. Y., sent a note to Treble Clef with this explanation: "... I didn't take my purse, and had only 30 cents in change in my pocket. So when they took up a collection I was quite embarrassed. This explains, I hope, the enclosed dollar, and after the concert I really felt I had had two dollar's worth. Will you please see that it gets into that collection?"

Attention, Gals! Get Y'or Man For Dogpatch Week

Attention all Dogpatchers! The rules governing Sadie Hawkins etiquette just released by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, sponsors of Sadie Hawkins Week, follow:

1. Coeds shall ask for all dates. They shall refrain from asking for dates until noon, May 22.

2. The women shall, at all times, follow the rules of etiquette of gentlemen in escorting the dates. They must call for the date at his residence. Coeds walk on the proper side of the sidewalk. Coeds must pay all bills. They must furnish their dates with a customary corsage.

3. Women and men must be dressed Dogpatch style.

A new added attraction of Sadie Hawkins week May 22 through May 25 is the beard growing contest. A prize will be awarded to the man who displays the longest beard—so it's no more close shaves! The other activities completing the week are the election of Daisy Mae and Lil Abner, May 17, and a tentative assembly, May 22.

Plans for the Sadie Hawkins Day race will be announced by co-chairmen Jack Weber and John Tabler, soon. Keep on the lookout for further details. To the women—Thanks to Sadie—This is your big chance—so don't miss it!

Sport Scribbles

Quite a crowd is expected to watch this afternoon's tennis match with Wittenberg. This will be the first opportunity for local tennis fans to see the University team in action this year and the match should be a very interesting one to watch.

The baseball games have been attracting fairly large groups of onlookers. But fans are still asking about the bleachers that are missing along the first base side of the field.

Got a Rule Book?

The umpires came up with a questionable decision in the Heidelberg game a week ago. Holtcamp, the visitors first sacker, singled and moved to third on an error.

Hudson, their second baseman, then fouled out to catcher Bill Bunt, who caught the ball not over ten feet from home plate. Bunt immediately wheeled and threw the ball to pitcher Petrides at home. But by that time Holtcamp had already crossed the plate.

What we would like to know is how Holtcamp could have possibly tagged up at third after Bunt's catch of the foul ball as the rule book says you must do and then have made it to the home plate before the ball was returned there. The umpires must have been watching one of the Piper Cubs passing overhead.

Hey, You Divo-Diggers!

Those of you fellows who are interested in playing on a University golf team and who missed the meeting with athletic director Harold Anderson a week ago yesterday had better drop in the athletic office and let him know as soon as possible. Our apologies to the fellows on the Hut K softball team (19 of them) for our error on the final score of the Hut K-Rangers game played May 2. The final score was 10 to 5 in favor of Hut K instead of 2 to 1 with the Rangers on top as was stated in last week's News. Thanx fellows.

Netmen In First Home Meet Today

Baseball And Track Meets Here Tuesday

Wittenberg comes to Bowling Green this afternoon to meet the Falcon tennis team in a return match to start off the week's sport schedule. Tomorrow, May 17, Coach Warren Steller will take his baseballers to Wright Field, Dayton. Next Tuesday, May 21, nearby Findlay will meet the local nine on the home diamond and Ohio Wesleyan will tangle with the cindermen on the local track the same afternoon.

The Falcon netmen will attempt to repeat their earlier 4 to 3 victory over Wittenberg in the first home match starting at 3 p.m. today. It will be match number three for Coach Emerson Shuck's racketeers.

Opposition Is Keen

Against Wright Field the Falcons will be facing their toughest opponent to date. The opponents have scored some very impressive wins against top-notch opposition. Findlay will go into Tuesday's battle the underdogs. They have been playing mediocre ball and Coach Steller's crew should rack up another win.

The tracksters will again be competing against a better than average track team. The Wesleyan cindermen have some very good runners and will give the local team stiff opposition.

Yesterday Hillsdale met the baseball team here in a game rescheduled from last Saturday because of wet grounds.

Last Tuesday, May 14, Coach Glander's cindermen competed against Cincinnati and Miami in a triangular meet in Miami.

IM Softball Goes Into Third Round

Third round intramural softball games begin today with the "A" Bombs meeting the Rangers and the Faculty tangling with the Pac-O-Vets in American League battles. Wednesday's fraternity games were postponed until a later date because of the May Sing.

Monday night, May 20, Rogge's Rogues will tangle with the Has Beens and the Tigers will meet the Wolves.

Baldwin-Wallace Tops Cindermen 70-57

— Falco-netters —

David Scudder and Jerry Harms bear the hopes of a successful season for Coach Emerson Shuck's Falcon tennis team. The two mainstays will lead the local netmen against Wittenberg this afternoon on the University courts.

Net Hopes Based on Vet Team; Pair Combine Tricky Shots

by Margaret Finney

Jerry Harms and David Scudder, army veterans playing alternate number one and two positions, represent the Falcon netmen's hopes for a winning tennis season.

Prior to joining the Falcon squad Harms, Bowling Green freshman, played tournament matches in the Toledo area. A sophomore from Bluffton, Scudder was a member of the Junior Davis Cup Team of Indianapolis.

Harms Uses Top Spin

Jerry's style is built around a flat drive which gives a top spin to the ball. On the whole his shots have a higher bounce than Scudder's. He also serves a harder and plays a more offensive type game.

Off par in the Oberlin match, Harms came back with a strong game at the number one position against Wittenberg the following week.

Serve Variation Employed

Scudder has a flat chop drive and a good looping serve whose high bounce makes recovery particularly difficult. Adept at varying this serve, he makes tough competition for an opponent. A half volley shot which he perfected this year, enabling him to recover low balls even at shoe-top height, paid dividends against Wittenberg.

Other netmen include Harding Monroe, Howard Rogge, Larry Kuhl, Pete Sherry and William Parker, all of whom have seen service on high school tennis teams or have played in tournament matches.

Although the netmen dropped a 7 to 1 match to Oberlin and took Wittenberg by the small margin of 4 to 3, it is too early in the season to make any definite predictions about the success of the team. Cold weather, rain and construction on the stadium club has limited practice time.

over two defeats. The "bloomer girls" will finish up the season May 23.

The Archery Club has sent 25 invitations to other Ohio Colleges for the Ohio Intercollegiate Postal Meet which they sponsor each year. The meet is being played during the week of May 8 to May 14.

The Outing Club will meet at the Women's Building Friday, May 17, at 4 p.m. for an over night camping trip to Oak Openings Park. The hikers will eat supper Friday and breakfast Saturday at the park, and they have their choice of sleeping under the stars or in cabins. Sign Up for Play Day

Toledo U. has invited Bee Gee to a "play day" May 18. Thirty-five women are expected to participate. Anyone interested in going should sign on the bulletin board in the Women's Building.

Badar's Four Firsts Pace Winners; Maag Breaks Local Discus Record

With Badar scoring 20 points singlehanded, the Baldwin-Wallace tracksters defeated Coach Joe Glander's track team 70 to 57 last Saturday afternoon on the local cinder paths for the Falcon's first setback. Charlie Maag set a new record for the local track when he tossed the discus 133 feet 11 inches.

Harrison Dillard, the opponents ace sprint man did not make the Bee Gee trip because of a sore leg muscle. The opponents did not need their top runner, however, as Badar copped first places in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and also in the 120 yard high and the 220 yard low hurdles events.

Maag's toss broke the old record of 132 feet set by Dave Robinson when he was a Falcon trackman in 1944.

Falcons Lack Sprinters

Poor baton passing set the Falcons back in the two relay events. The lack of sprint men also was very evident as Baldwin-Wallace took first places in all of the running events except the two mile run. Walt Terrell was way out in front for the Falcons in this event. He also came in second in the mile run to lead the Bee Gee scoring with eight points.

Crabbe, the opponent's ace jumper, won the broad jump with a leap of over 20 feet, but on the winning jump he suffered a possible torn cartilage in his right leg and was carried to the dressing room on a stretcher.

Only a handful of spectators were on hand Saturday to witness the meet which was conducted on a rather poor track. Several good times were turned in spite of the slightly cool weather.

Baseballers Win Over Heidelberg

Kubiak At Bat Equals Petrides' Moundwork

Fancy hurling and lusty clouting payed off once more for Coach Warren Steller's baseball squad Tuesday, May 7, when Fred Petrides set Heidelberg down with four hits as the Falcons triumphed 5 to 1 on the local diamond. An error and a questionable decision by the umpire in the fourth prevented a shutout.

Petrides continued to impress Coach Steller and the fans. He has given up but one walk and has whiffed 12 batters in the 12 hittings he has pitched to take his place along with Dewey Johnson at the top of the Falcon pitching staff.

Kubiak Homers

In the hitting department Leo Kubiak and George Baldwin led the attack against Kroetz, the Heidelberg hurler. Kubiak, who has moved up to the number one spot in batting, contributed a lusty home run in the sixth frame. Speeding around the bases he beat the throw from center fielder Hale of the visitors with a beautiful sprint into home. He also slashed a single in the first.

Baldwin returned to the lineup in right field after being benched with a pre-season leg injury. He replaced George Bohanna, who was injured in the first inning, and connected for three singles in five trips to the plate.

Applications For Social Committee Due Next Monday

Applications for membership to the social committee will be accepted in the office of the Dean of Women starting today until Monday, May 20, at 5 p.m.

Students with a cumulative average of 2.0 or above will be considered eligible for membership. Any student in good standing may submit his application to the Social Committee. Applications must be submitted in writing on special forms which may be secured in the Dean of Women's office. The following groups are also requested to submit at least two candidates selected by an election within the group for each student vacancy on the Social Committee: Kohl Hall, Williams Hall, Shatzel Hall, Panhellenic, Inter-fraternity Council, AWS(WSGA), and WIS.

From these candidates the Student Council will elect six student members whose official term of office will begin the following school year. These student members will be two incoming juniors, one man and one woman, who will continue in office throughout their senior year, and four incoming sophomores, two men and two women, who will hold office for one year.

Article By Dr. Leedy Is In Philology Journal

The April issue of The Journal of English and German Philology contains an article by Dr. Paul F. Leedy entitled "Genres Criticism and the Significance of Warton's Essay on Pope." The article deals with an interpretation of Joseph Warton's criticism of the poetry of Alexander Pope and stresses the presence of traditional as well as new ideas in Warton's thinking about the literature of the early eighteenth century.

Dr. Leedy, who is Librarian and professor of English at the University, came to Bowling Green from the University of Michigan.

by Jane Carlton

Piano music by Dorothy Irvin began the Mother's Day program last week. "The Watcher," a poem read by Betty Klingel, was followed by group singing. The Gamma Phi Beta "Melody Maids," a vocal solo by Howard Martin, a piano solo by Mrs. Carlton, and James Stoner's thought for the week, "Dear Mom," prepared the way for refreshments.

James Stoner will lead an informal session on "Where Are We?" next Sunday evening at 6 in the Rec Hall. Students are invited to ask religious, economic, or social questions and frank and informal opinions will be given.

Chapel yesterday was a musical program with special organ music by Robert Ferrell.

The Community Service Group was host to a group of students on 5th street Saturday afternoon. The worship group will meet Friday afternoon at 4 to discuss "Why I Am a Christian." James Stoner and Evadna Culler will lead the

Printing Begins For First 'Eyas'

Printing of the first number of Eyas, student literary magazine, began Tuesday as soon as the linotype slugs were received from the Sentinel-Tribune. Press time will total about 40 hours, according to Prof. D. J. Crowley of the industrial arts department. This means that the magazine will be assembled and bound some time next week.

Eyas will be placed on sale towards the end of this month at a quarter per copy which is to cover printing costs. Sales representatives have already been appointed for each residence hall and sorority and fraternity houses. Off-campus students may buy their copies of Eyas in the Well.

Included in the magazine will be prose, poetry, and photography. Three entries in fiction, essay, and poetry have been placed as first, second, and third; however the winners will not be announced until Eyas is ready to be distributed. Several honorable mention poems, plus four verses by Grayce Scholt, art editor, are also included in the magazine.
